A Review of: "Calvinism, Arminianism & The Word of God: A ... While Arminians claim (and wrongly so) that Calvinism necessarily results in a fatalistic view of life, I believe that Arminianism, if carried to its logical conclusion, completely undermines many of the core doctrines of the Bible, to include justification by faith alone, and God's Sovereignty and Providence, and, in essence, results in the heresy that Hagin and Copeland teach.

Word of Faith, Arminianism, and Calvinism - Part 1

The history of the Calvinist–Arminian debate begins in early 17th century in the Netherlands with a Christian theological dispute between the followers of John Calvin and Jacobus Arminius, and continues today among some Protestants, particularly evangelicals. The debate centers around soteriology, or the study of salvation, and includes disputes about total depravity, predestination, and atonement. While the debate was given its Calvinist–Arminian form in the 17th century, issues central ...
