In my opinion not as good as the first Color Your Own Avengers book. First, there are not as many illustrations of the older lineups - surely easier to color than the more modern images, with their increase in the use of black ink. Also, a reviewer of the first Avengers coloring book asked for more images of the individual members.

Or maybe they should stat including a specific sheet for that issue. Also, none of the the Marvel coloring books come with color test sheets like some of the other "adult" coloring books come with. That more of a personal complaint though. But i love these and own 4 Marvel books, with a few more pre-ordered. They are extremely fun!
