The United States is a model of freedom, democracy, and economic strength for the rest of the world. Our continued success as a world leader depends on whether citizens like you take an active part in our government and institutions. This Civics program helps you foster student civic responsibility with a balanced approach that focuses on the principles of government, active citizenship, and responsible economic participation. Throughout Holt Civics in Practice, you will find special features that will help you understand more about your roles in your country and community. Many of these features were developed with our partners, the Center for Civic Education and the World Almanac Education Group. - Publisher.

USCIS Civics flash cards: These Civics flash card will help immigrants learn about US history and government while preparing for naturalization test. These flash cards can also be used in the classroom as an instruction tool for citizenship preparation. Important note: on the naturalization test, some answers may change because of elections or appointments. Applicants must be aware of the most current answers to these questions. Applicants must answer these questions with the name of the official who is serving at the time of his or her eligibility interview with the USCIS. The USCIS officer will not accept and incorrect answer.

Explains how the Constitution and Bill of Rights came to exist, how they laid out the rights of those accused of committing a crime, and how the Supreme Court has interpreted these rights since then.

Introduces students to the four ideas which are basic to our constitutional form of government: authority, privacy, responsibility, and justice.
