Fist, Stick, Knife, Gun: A Personal History of Violence is the 1995 memoir by Geoffrey Canada that details his coming-of-age in the South Bronx. It follows Canada from the age of four to young manhood and describes the different and increasingly lethal forms that violence takes in his life.

SuperSummary
As these excerpts from the poems and essays written by my eighth grade English students indicate, Geoffrey Canada's Fist Stick Knife Gun, a poignant account of his coming-of-age on the streets of New York City's South Bronx, is the basis for one of the most vital and successful units I teach. Adolescents barely beyond their own childhoods are touched, angered, and inspired by Geoff's true story of struggling to break out of the streets in which survival meant downplaying one's intelligence ...
