page 467 note 2 The Jewish scholar Kaufmann, Y., The Religion of Israel (Chicago, 1960), does not link prophecy and cult as closely as this article has done. The great value of Kaufmann's viewpoint is that he underlines the primacy of morality in the prophets. It was 'but a step from the moral outlook of the Torah to the doctrine of primacy of morality (cf. Deut. 10.17ff); but this step was ...

The example structure above works particularly well for formal assignments such as reflective essays and reports. Reflective journal/blogs and other pieces of assessed reflections tend to be less formal both in language and structure, however you can easily adapt the structure for journals and other reflective assignments if you find that helpful.
