Major problems in the era of the American Revolution, 1760 . . .

The Gilded Age saw a rise in unhealthy and dangerous working conditions. Most factory owners and bosses were more concerned with profit than worker safety. During industrialization, the work accidents and terrible working conditions were countless To combat this, workers formed unions to fight for higher wages, better hours and safer conditions. However, unions experienced challenges and often won few victories because of the government's cooperation with business.
